SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I joined Facebook in 2009 and connected with many old friends and made many new ones. I also discovered many interesting new groups.

One of them, THOSE WHO COUDNT MAKE IT BIG BUT IT WAS NOT POSSIBLE WITH OUT THEM, was very active in seeking out information about junior artists and group dancers. The members had discussions about hundreds of these minor players and I was beside myself with joy on reading their posts and discussions. I made two new friends, Upendra Samaranayake and Dr Ramnath Iyer Ashok.

Upendra not only posted on Facebook but had also written down detailed filmographies of these artists and collected hundreds of photos of them. I was able to persuade him to publish these filmographies as books in 2019. They remain a valuable resource on junior artists for everybody.

In the meantime, the background dancer (late) Edwina Violette was discovered by Greta Kaemmer in 2011 and I was lucky to interview her and wrote her biography in 2015. Later Narsingh D Agnish collected thousands of photos of background dancers, Edwina identified most of them and another book was the result in 2021.

We would like to put on record our indebtedness to all of the above.

PROLOGUE

By Sheo Khetan

We are ready to put this book, "Hindi Films: Pictures of the cast with a total of 58 pictures by a total of 51 different theaters. This includes all the movies available to us for two years 1950 and 1951. Dev Anand had the highest number of movies, 7, while Raj Kapoor had a total of 5 and Premnath had 4. Dileep Kumar had 6 movies and Ashok Kumar had a total of 5 movies, but both had won the esteem in earlier years. Thus these 5 stars did roughly half of the movies during this era.

Of the other stars, Ajit, Rehman and Karan Diwan each did 3 movies, and Trilok Kapur, Bhagawan, Kishore Sahu and Suresh did 2 movies each. The remaining 14 movies were done by remaining 14 stars.

Similarly, Madhubala had 8 movies, Nalini Jaywant had 7 movies and Geeta Bali had 4. Nargis who had higher movies in 1947-1949, had a total of 7 movies this year. These stars among themselves did roughly half of the movie.

Of the other stars Suraiya and Nirupa Roy did 3 movies each and Rehana, Naseem, Nutan, Nimmi and Meena Kumari did 2 movies each. These stars along with top stars did a total of 42 movies leaving the rest 14 movies remaining stars.

Of these, 3 movies were done by Ambitious pictures and 2 each for Basant Pictures, Bombay Talkies, Kristine Pictures and All India pictures. The remaining 47 pictures were made by 47 different production companies.

Of 58 movies 20 are chosen by me to have some lasting impression.

Arzoo with Dileep and Kanini Kaushal, apart from being a good movie, was at the end of the everlasting type of real romance between Hero and Heroine.

Banware Nain was a movie with a song by the elder Rajkumari "Tb kya hoga".

Dastan was a picture of Raj Kapoor and Suraiya, but earned reputation for Veena, a strict Disciplinarian.

Jogan was a movie by Kidar Sharma and one of the rare movies from Ranjit Production.

Mashal Was a serious movie, with Manna Dey's song "Uper Gagan

Vishal" his first movie song

Nirala was a movie where veteran actor Majhar Khan was in the last movie of his life

Samadhi was a movie where Dr Subhass Chandra Bose's life was shown, and a successful one

Afsana was a movie with Ashok Kumar and Veena, Ashok Kumar in a double role and Pran singing the song " Abhi to main jawan hoon"

Albela was a movie with Bhagwan's most popular movie. It had nice music by C Ramchandra and its song "Shola jo Bhadke" reminds today of the movie's success. It was 3rd highest grosser movie of 1951

Aawara movie was the first grosser of 1951

Bahar was a movie which was Actress Vyjayantimala's first movie Deedar was a good movie with Ashok Kumar,

Dileebp and Nargis. In this movie you can see the famous actor Jal Merchant in a small role

Hulchal was a movie with Dillep, but Yaqub's role was quite important, He got the top billing

Kali Ghata was a movie by Kishore Sahu with Beena Roy as a fresh heroine

Nadan movie is successful copy of the Hollywood movie."It happened one night". Later on Raj Kapoor made a very popular movie "Chori-Chori" and Mahesh Bhatt made a movie " Dil Hai ki manata Nahin"

Sagai was a very popular movie, I cannot fathom why?

Sazaa is an extremely good movie. Its song "tum na jane kis Jahan me kho gaye" still is popular

Shabistan is the movie where pupular actor, Shyam fell off a horse and died

Hum log is a very sobering picture with Balraj Sahani's acting is exemplary

Tarana was a movie where love between Madhubala and Dilip Kumar is very intoxicating It was a true love in real life, which did not come to the successful end

Music in this period was totally sweet and 'Golden Era' continued C Ramchandra continued with 8 movies, While S D Burman emerged to be at the top with a total of 8 movies. The established stars Naushad and Anil Biswas continued with 4 movies, while the Newcomer Music Director Shanker and Jaikishan did 4 movies. Emerging MD's like Roshan and

Madan Mohan Gave music for 3 movies each. Sajjad, Shyam Sundar, and Basant Desai gave music for 2 movies, The remaining, while remaining 18 Movies had 18 MDs

The real songs that came out with impressive music are

S D Burman Manna Dey "Ooper Gagan Vishal..."

Madan Mohan Song 'Meri Yad Men tum na Ansoo bahana' Madhosh

S D Burman Saazaa " Tum na jane kis jahan men kho gaye"

Anil Biswas Tarana

Among the stars Dileep and Madhubala were top story. Their romance was at an extreme but due to Madhubala's dad it did not get anywhere

The Dev Anand and Suraiya's live was an extreme level to which Suraiya's mom, Mumtaz Begum also agreed, but due to her Dadi's (Badshah Begum) staunch opposition, as well as her Mamoo (Raja Zohoor) being totally against it, It could not advance. It is said that Dev Anand gave Suraiya a diamond ring, but Zohoor Raja very angrily threw Dev out of their house.

In 1951 the actor Shyam fell off a horse in the movie Shabistan and died

In April 50, Miss Zebunnisa married a photographer Mr Gidwani

PREFACE

(from Volume 1)

By Prof Surjit Singh

Like everybody else from my generation, I started watching Hindi movies when I was a teenager and without letting my parents or teachers know. At first I watched them for the story, the romantic songs, the fights, and overall entertainment. Soon I found myself looking at the details, such as the costumes, the sets, and paying attention to the character artists, the junior artists, the group dancers, and the so-called extras. A lot of these artists were typecast as teachers, temple priests, policemen, moneylenders, henchmen, beggars, lawyers, judges, and regular party goers or court attendees, to name a few. Most fascinating for me were the backup dancers, who did their job very professionally, but most of the time were not even listed in the credits. They were the unknown, the unheralded, the unsung, and the unrecorded, even though movies could not be made without them.

So, when Sheo Khetan asked me if he could do a project with me, I suggested that he should watch the available films and take snapshots of the cast. He did a great job by capturing every single person who had a speaking role. Unfortunately, the quality of the available pictures, especially from the 30s and 40s was not that good.

Sheo captured so many poses from different angles that if all of them were included, we would have had a very big book even from the first few films.

It was then decided to select the better captures and restrict ourselves to a few years at a time.

We hope the readers will as much fun with the book as we have had in creating it. It is our sincere hope that the knowledgeable readers will help us in identifying the unknowns so that we can include their names in the next edition.

HINDI MOVIE FILMOGRAPHY

(from Volume 1)

In the very early days we did not even have a list of Hindi films made in a given year! The only authentic sources for finding out about the movies were the Gazettes published by the Central and the Provincial governments. The first person who took it upon himself to make a list of films was a theater owner in Poona, Mr BV Dharap. He took it upon himself to visit all the Censor Boards, examined the old issues of the Gazettes and prepare a list films certified by the Boards.

Next major effort was made by Mr Firoze Rangoonwalla, who prepared a basic filmography based on the film booklets available with various private collectors. He published it as a book. All the later work on the history of Hindi films including various Film Annuals depended on his work.

Still there was no authentic information about the music and the songs. Mr Har Mandir Singh 'Hamraaz' of Kanpur stepped in. He started his compilation work in the 70s when he was still a young man working in a bank. He not only used the information in the existing books, but also went to the National Film Archives, Poona to collect information from their magazines. He bought thousands of film booklets from many sellers in many cities in India. He visited the offices of the music companies, scores of rare record collectors and interviewed hundreds of film personalities.

The result was the Gold Standard of Hindi film data compilation. He published it in six volumes (1931-1985), styled as Hindi Film Geet Kosh, known the world over as HFGK. Almost all radio stations have a copy. Scores of libraries in world have copies. Dozens of doctoral theses and scholarly articles have been written based on these volumes.

So, now we have a very detailed information about Hindi films, production companies, producers, directors, music directors, lyricists, singers, song titles, 78 rpm record numbers and other media (tapes, CDs etc.) in which the songs have been issued.

Har Mandir Singh 'Hamraaz' had an 'itch' and he scratched it! But crazy fans of films like me and Sheo had other itches. We wanted to know the names of all the actors in the films. Unfortunately, very few films are available. But even in the ones which we have, we know the names of only a few major stars. Thanks to HFGK and the films themselves we do have the names. But how to match the names with the faces?

Luckily some of the early films have Hollywood-style cast list. We have used that. For others, we had to rely on film magazines published in the early era. We had access to many issues filmindia, which shows pictures of the cast in some of the ads. Unfortunately, quite a lot remain to be identified.

In many cases, we have mentioned the name of the role rather than the actor. In such cases, we have used words such as role, man who plays etc.

This is a work in progress. We hope that our readers will help us to scratch this crazy 'itch'!

Please note that

- The views expressed above in the Prologue are Sheo Khetan's own.
- In a few cases, the images have been labeled based on the information in IMDB or as found by Sheo Khetan. We cannot vouch for their correctness.

NOTE ON THE CAPTURED IMAGES

(from Volume 1)

As compared with other countries, Indian film archival is in a very poor shape. Quite a few studios lost their original prints in fires, e.g. Ranjit Studios. Many of the smaller producers did not bother to save the prints and sold them to recyclers. We must thank New Theaters, Prabhat Studios, Bombay Talkies and The Wadia Brothers for saving so many of their films from the 30s and the 40s.

Earlier the only way to watch an old film was to wait for its revival. I remember seeing “Albela” three times and many others such as “Anmol Ghadi” and “Badi Bahen” in the 70s. Once in a while, old films were shown the Film Festivals. With the advent of video cameras, it became possible to make and sell video cassettes. Quite a lot of films in my collection have come from the treasure of Dr Manohar Lal Kapur (Suffolk, VA), which he built by buying the original Esquire issues in the 80s and 90s. Many of his videos and also some from the collection of Late Mr Amarjit Singh Anand have been beautifully restored by Tom Daniel, who publishes them under the name Edu Productions on the memsaabstory website of Greta Kaemmer and also on his YouTube channels.

Then came the Digital Age. It spoiled everything! Although more films became available, they were issued as VCDs at first. Hindi films could not be fit even on two VCDs, so the digitizers starting chopping off whole scenes and songs. The coming of the DVDs should have solved the problems, but it did not. Because, in many cases, the DVD makers simply converted the VCDs to DVDs, and did not seek out the original print. Since digitization was easy to learn with minimal training, people who did it messed it up even more. They completely ignored the original aspect ration and tried to fit the old films into the latest aspect ratios. The result was that we have Ashok Kumar’s head and Madhubala’s feet missing!

In any case, we have tried to get the ‘best’ print and tried to capture as many close-ups as possible. But sometimes the print available to us was just not fixable. We have provided whatever we could get with the maxim that something is better than nothing. We hope that our book inspires people to seek out the original prints.
